Getting the best price

- Visits of up to an hour: the standard £1.55 at High Street MSCP, or £2.00 in the Ann Street bays, is the cheapest option.
- Staying longer on a Monday to Wednesday afternoon: the £3.00 flat rate from 3pm beats the standard £3.30 for two hours. We’re open on Tuesdays, so a Tuesday appointment from 3pm qualifies.
- All day: South Farm Road (£4.50 for up to 9 hours) or Teville Gate (£7.40).
- Free: on-street bays in the town centre after 6pm Monday to Saturday and all day Sunday; council multi-storeys from 10pm to 6am.

Single yellow lines and loading bays

In Worthing, the hours for every yellow line and parking bay are set by West Sussex County Council's Traffic Regulation Orders, and Civil Enforcement Officers patrol them. The Highway Code sets out how to read the signs.

The short version: an appointment doesn't count as loading. If a yellow line's hours are in force when you arrive, use the Ann Street bays or the High Street multi-storey instead; both are a few minutes' walk away.

Single yellow lines

- No waiting during the times on the small plate on a nearby post. Outside those times you can park, unless kerb marks say otherwise.
- No plate? In a controlled parking zone, the times can be on the zone sign you passed on the way in.
- Times but no days on the plate means every day, including Sundays and bank holidays.
- Double yellow lines mean no waiting at any time, even with no sign.
- The rules cover the pavement and verge too, and staying in the car doesn't help.

Loading and unloading

On a yellow line with no kerb marks, you can stop to load or unload goods that are heavy, bulky or numerous, and to let passengers in or out. Shopping, errands and appointments are not loading.

Blue Badge holders

In West Sussex you can park on single or double yellow lines for up to 3 hours, as long as you don't cause danger or an obstruction and there are no yellow marks on the kerb. Display your badge and set the blue parking clock to your arrival time.

What a parking ticket costs

Parking on a yellow line during its hours, in a loading bay without loading, or where loading is banned costs £70, reduced to £35 if paid within 14 days, rising to £105 if unpaid. West Sussex's 10-minute grace period applies only in marked parking bays, never on yellow lines or where loading is banned. You can challenge a ticket in writing, then appeal to the independent Traffic Penalty Tribunal.

Getting here without a car

- Bus: the nearest stops are The Steyne and South Street, 2–3 minutes away. Routes include the 5, 10 and 23, and the 700 Coastliner.
- Train: Worthing Station is a 10–13 minute walk, with services from Brighton, Gatwick and London Victoria.
- Bike: Donkey Bikes hire bikes around the town centre; secure cycle storage at High Street MSCP, Civic Quarter MSCP and the station.

Paying with the MiPermit app

Free on the App Store and Google Play. Pay on arrival and extend your stay from your phone if your appointment runs over. Location codes: 702227 High Street MSCP, 702228 Buckingham Road MSCP, 702225 Civic Quarter MSCP, 702221 Teville Gate.

We look forward to seeing you

A plain-English summary, not legal advice: the signs and markings on the street are what apply on the day. Kerb marks (loading bans)

Kerb marking	Meaning
One short yellow mark	No loading or unloading during the times on the nearby plate
Two short yellow marks	No loading or unloading at any time

A driver can still stop briefly to let a passenger in or out. Blue Badge holders can't park where loading is banned.

Loading bays

Bays marked 'Loading only' are for loading and unloading during the times on the sign (all times if none are shown). Some are for goods vehicles only. A Blue Badge doesn't allow parking in them.
